Be the first to know

By sitting at the epicenter of $1.5 trillion of transactions every year, CoStar is in a unique position to provide you with breaking commercial real estate news. Our team of award-winning journalists and economists follow the deals as they unfold, cover the movement of professionals to new firms, and provide you with national and local market coverage.

CoStar is the only commercial real estate information solution that includes a professional news service and brings you in-depth information from a variety of sources.

National and local news coverage

Our reporters and market analysts are located around the country and have deep local market ties. They help you stay on top of the latest news coverage and know what is happening in the industry and your local market.

Property news embedded in the property detail

Only CoStar allows you to link a news article directly to its underlying property data. This means you can analyze buildings and markets related to any story and have the entire picture of any opportunity from a news and data perspective.

Award winning journalists

Every year, several of CoStar's news articles and reporters are recognized at the Real Estate Journalism Awards. In 2017, CoStar took Silver for Best Breaking News Story and Bronze for Best Online Commercial Real Estate Story.
